

Vilnius „Varpo“ adult secondary school established in 1940 is the oldest adult secondary school in Vilnius. Many famous Lithuanian people graduated from this school such as: the writers Mykolas Sluckis, Kostas Kubilinskas, Edvardas Drėgva, a popular journalist Algimantas Čekuolis, an actress Undinė Nasvytė, a composer Rimvydas Žigaitis, a musician Aloyzas Končius and even an organist professor Leopoldas Digrys.

School administrative staff:

Headmistress – Jolanta Čeponaitė;
Deputies for education – Rima Žvirblienė and Kęstutis Kurtinys;
Deputy for extra curriculum – Gintaras Brazauskas;
School board chair woman – Jolita Rancovienė.
35 teachers: 3 experts, 4 methodologists, 10 senior teachers.

Our school is a safe place both for students and teachers, open for positive changes and innovations. The particular attraction is its microclimate involving good, creative, friendly relationships among students and teachers. Basic and secondary education is available where students can pick up various teaching forms such as morning shift, night or distant learning. Besides the required subjects students according to their preferences also can choose some electives, for example human rights, psychology, office skills, healthy lifestyles, IT. There are also extra curriculum classes for students who are interested in various activities. The most popular are arts, school band, applied maths in economics, environment in life.

Beyond academics and extracurriculum activities we cherish our traditional festivals such as Teacher’s Day, Christmas, Last Bell, go on historical, literary excursions, arrange meetings with famous people.

Furthermore our school has got a rich library, reading hall with internet, fine class rooms with internet. School history museum is available for community. Our school is a good balance between learning and fun and prepares students for work and college.
